Alexander Girard
A Colorful Life in Design

MARCH 4TH 5:30 - 7:30 PM

PIVOT | 3200 PARK CENTER DR, SUITE 100, COSTA MESA CA 92626

CEU: Alexander Girard: A Colorful Life in Design | CEU Presented by Herman Miller
Alexander Girard, one of the least well know designers at Herman Miller had a significant impact on the Modernist movement. Girard is widely known for his contributions in the field of American textile design, particularly through his work for Herman Miller (1952 to 1975), where he created fabrics for the designs of George Nelson and Charles and Ray Eames. Please join us for an evening of discovering many of his great talents through his colorful life in design. This CEU is IDCEC and AIA accredited.

This event is free but, space is limited. Please RSVP at www.iida-socal.org
