Learn about Design Using Color Theory, Textiles & Light to Create Healthful Lifestyle Settings, a CEU course, presented by Sunbrella's Merchandise Manager, Marcia Blake (ASID & CEU Instructor).

This course will discuss how hue, chroma, value, saturation, tones, tints and shades affect the way we perceive colors. We'll discuss how to create effective color palettes utilizing textiles for healthy lifestyle settings indoor and out. Participants will gain knowledge and understanding of the benefits of integrating color and light in the selection and specification of performance fabrics in lifestyle designs for personal health and well-being.

*This course is approved by IDCEC & AIA for 1 hour of CEU credit.
