

JORGE COLON

CO ARCHITECTS
DIRECTOR OF INTERIOR
ARCHITECTURE AND DESIGN

TURNING POINT SERIES
FALL
PANELIST- LA & OC

As CO's director of interior architecture and design, Jorge Colón guides design processes that deliver highly responsive and fully integrated interior environments. Jorge has over 20 years of design and management experience with academic, research, institutional, commercial and residential building projects that includes the new construction and adaptive reuse and renovation of interior spaces. As a designer, he has received multiple awards and has been recognized by the AIA and other institutions for his innovative projects. Jorge has a Bachelor of Science in Architecture from Georgia Institute of Technology, a Master of Architecture from Arizona State University, and Master in Design Studies from Harvard University.